

Lochalsh and Skye Housing Association aims to provide good quality affordable housing solutions for those with a housing need in Skye and Lochalsh. We own and manage more than 600 properties and have an active development programme of new projects and planned maintenance projects for our existing housing stock.

Management Committee Members

The Housing Association is committed to providing high quality affordable housing solutions and related services for those in housing need in Skye and Lochalsh.

Our Management Committee is responsible for ensuring that the organisation is managed effectively and operates in line with the requirements of the law, Communities Scotland and best practice.

If you are resident within Skye and Lochalsh, have an interest in housing matters and feel you have the skills, knowledge and experience to contribute towards assisting us in achieving our aims, we would like to hear from you.

We have vacancies on our Management Committee and are seeking applications from individuals from a range of geographic locations and with a variety of skills. Applications from our tenants would be particularly welcomed.

Our Management Committee meetings are held monthly in Portree and Broadford, alternately, and normally last no more than two hours.

Management Committee members are not paid but can claim all reasonable out of pocket expenses including travel costs, childcare, etc. Transport can be arranged for non-drivers.
