Introduction

There are references throughout this Code of Conduct (the Code) to 'I and 'you' which means the member of staff of Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association who has signed this Code. References to 'we', 'us' and 'our' mean Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association.

1. Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association attaches the greatest importance to ensuring that high standards of behaviour are demonstrated by all of our people and in all of our activities.
2. This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of conduct required of you as a member of our staff. You are required to observe these standards in all the activities that you undertake in connection with our employment with us.
3. As a Registered Social Landlord (RSL), we are required to adopt and comply with an appropriate Code of Conduct¹. This Code is based on the Model Code of Conduct produced by the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations and Employers in Voluntary Housing (EVH) – which the Scottish Housing Regulator(SHR) has confirmed fully complies with its Regulatory Standards.
4. You must make yourself familiar with the terms of this Code and act in accordance with its requirements at all times. You are required to sign the Code (in the 'Statement of the Acceptance' on p12) to confirm that you have read and understood the terms of the Code and you have a personal responsibility to uphold the requirements of this Code.
5. You must also ensure you are familiar with - and comply with - all of our policies.
6. If there are any aspects of this Code, or of any of the related policies, on which you are unclear, you must seek guidance from your manager. Your manager, or Chief Executive, will also be able to give guidance where you are unsure how the Code or related policies apply in a particular situation.
7. This Code of Conduct was adopted by the Board on 19 July 2021.

Who the Code applies to

8. This Code of Conduct applies to everyone who works for us whether employed directly or otherwise.

9. A copy of this Code will be given to every person that it applies to.

How the Code is structured

10. The Code is based on the Nolan Principles on Standards in Public Life² which are recognised as defining good conduct for those who work for the public using public money.
11. We have defined three groups of principles as the basis for the Code:
 - A Honesty and Integrity
 - B Openness and Accountability
 - C Selflessness, Objectivity, Leadership
12. Each of the three sections begins with a statement of principle. This is followed by a number of provisions which set out the requirements of the Code in more detail.

The Code is not exhaustive and it should be remembered that all staff members of RSLs are responsible for ensuring that their conduct at all times meets the high standards that the RSL sector is recognised for upholding. As well as observing the detail of the Code, you should apply its intention and spirit to all situations in employment.

You are required to sign the Statement of Acceptance at the conclusion of this code on page 12 which also outlines the implications for any breach of the code.

The Code of Conduct

A. Honesty and Integrity: You must act at all times with honesty and integrity. You must not use, or seek to use, your position to gain financial or other benefit for yourself, your family or friends.

Gifts and hospitality

- A.1 I will act, and ensure I am seen to act, wholly in the interests of the Association, our tenants, other residents in our communities and other service users. I will ensure that I do not benefit improperly from my position.
- A.2 I will not accept any offers of gifts or hospitality from individuals or organisations which might reasonably create – or be capable of creating – an impression of impropriety or influence or place me under an obligation to these individuals or organisations. I will comply with Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association's Entitlement Payments and Benefits policy.

Prevention of bribery

- A.3 I will comply with our anti-bribery and corruption policies.
- A.4 We forbid all forms of bribery - meaning a financial or other advantage or inducement intended to persuade someone to perform improperly any function or activity. I will not offer, seek or accept bribes or other inducements from any individual or organisation and I will comply fully with our Anti Bribery Policy. I am aware that offering, seeking or accepting bribes or other inducements will result in disciplinary action and may also result in criminal prosecution.
- A.5 I will report to my manager or the Chief Executive any instances of suspected bribery or corruption within the Association or any external organisation with which we have dealings.

Personal benefit

- A.6 I recognise that neither I, nor someone closely connected to me, can as a result of my role with the Association receive preferential treatment relating to any services provided by the Association or its contractors/suppliers; I will ensure that I can demonstrate this.
- A.7 I will not use, or seek to use, my position to promote my personal interests or those of any person with whom I am closely connected, or the interests of any business or other organisation with which I have a connection.

Resources, facilities and premises

A.8 I will use our resources, facilities and premises only for the purposes intended and in a responsible and lawful manner. This includes office premises, telephone, computer and other IT facilities, equipment, stationery, transport and staff.

Reasonable personal use of office telephones and computers and company mobile telephones is permitted but must be kept to a minimum. Our IT Use and Security Policy gives further information including what is meant by 'reasonable personal use'.

A.9 I will comply with all of our relevant policies, including (but not exclusively) usage of internet & email, social media, health & safety, equalities, human rights and diversity and dignity at work.

A.10 I will not undertake work for another organisation - or for any personal business - on Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association's premises nor use our resources or facilities for such a purpose, unless I have specific permission from my manager.

Funds and expenses

A.11 I recognise that Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association's funds must be safeguarded from abuse, theft or waste. At all times, I will apply and observe all of our financial regulations and internal controls.

A.12 I will comply with our relevant policies when procuring goods/services or claiming expenses.

Tenants/service users and money

A.13 As a general rule, in relation to tenants and service users I will not:

- Give or loan them money
- Receive a gift or loan of money from them
- Invite or influence them to make a will or trust under which I am named as executor, trustee or beneficiary.

A.14 In circumstances where you have a declared family connection to a tenant/service user, common sense will be applied and the Association would not seek to impose restrictions on the private exchange of money between you and that individual.

General responsibilities

A.15 I will not act in a way that unjustifiably favours or discriminates against particular individuals, groups or interests.

I am aware that under the Equality Act 2010, the following nine characteristics are specifically protected: age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, and sexual orientation.

A.16 In presenting information I will take all reasonable steps to ensure that I set out the facts and relevant issues truthfully.

A.17 I will avoid any situation that could give rise to suspicion or suggest improper conduct.

A.18 I will inform my manager or the Chief Executive if I am notified of any action by a professional body that is relevant to my role with Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association and/or which could impact Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association's reputation that I am or may be party to.

B. Openness and Accountability: You must declare all relevant personal interests. You must handle information in accordance with our policies and procedures. You must report to the appropriate senior person within Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association any reasonable and honest suspicions you may have about possible wrongdoing.

Declaring interests

Respecting confidentiality

- B.7 I will respect confidentiality and ensure that I do not disclose information to anyone who is not entitled to receive it, both whilst I am a member of staff and after I have left employment at Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association.
- B.8 Unless specifically authorised to do so, I will not make comments or statements in public or to the media or on social media sites or pass any documents or other information to the press or media about us or our activities. I will pass any such enquiries to the Chief Executive.

If I am in doubt as to the legal and regulatory requirements that are relevant to my role, I will seek guidance from my manager or the Chief Executive.

C.4 I will work at all times in accordance with our policies and procedures and I will not allow my own personal or political opinions to affect the way in which I carry out my duties. This does not impinge on my right to be an active citizen or to be an active trade unionist.

C.5 I will take direction from my manager, other senior managers and the Board, and exercise responsibly any authority that comes with my role as a staff member.

C.6 I will not seek to use informal channels to influence the Board regarding decisions to be made about the conduct of our business.

- C.7 I will consult with my manager before taking on any outside work or any position (paid or unpaid) that could in any way impact on my role with Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association. I recognise that such work or position must not interfere with my existing job or conflict with Lochalsh & Skye Housing Association's interests.
- C.8 I will participate in any necessary training, and play a constructive part in our performance appraisal process. I will contribute to the identification of any personal training needs I may have in order to keep my professional skills and knowledge up to date.
