Whatever your problem, the Skye & Lochalsh team is here to help. We can give advice on a whole range of issues, including:

- > Benefits - entitlements, applications and appeals against unfair decisions
- > Debt and money - managing debts and maximising your income
- > Work issues - terms and conditions, dismissal, redundancy, and intimidation
- > Consumer issues - from broken kettles to issues with gas and electricity supply
- > Relationships - splitting up, divorce, children, bereavement
- > Housing - Problems with rent and mortgages, rights of tenants and homelessness

We're here to get you the advice and information you need.

From advice and information on day-to-day issues, to detailed support on key specialist topics, we can help. Our team have vast experience and are trained to offer guidance when it's needed most. You can always be sure that our support will be free, and that we won't judge you or your circumstances.

No problem is too big or too small, and we'll help in the best way we can. We are part of the Citizens Advice network in Scotland. Together we're committed to providing the highest possible quality of advice.

Our advisors are keeping up to date with changing legislation through uncertain times; and our team have access to a national advice information system - so we can give you the answers you need, on hundreds of issues.

Rules which govern your housing, benefits and a range of other issues have temporarily changed - so, if you have any questions please get in touch.
