

JESSICA CLARKE – TENANT ENGAGEMENT & SUPPORT MANAGER

Jess graduated with a prized first class degree in Criminology from Anglia Ruskin University where she went on to join her local Constabulary. Over a ten-year career as a police officer, she has experience with all elements of Response Policing, as well as more specialist roles. She has led in both Neighbourhood Policing and rural specialist crime.

She moved to Skye to commence the role as LSHA's Tenant Engagement and Support Manager in December 2024. Jess is committed to a multi-agency approach to supporting tenants.

In her free time, she is currently training for a marathon and enjoying sea swimming with friends.
