STANDARD	OUTCOME
Section:- The customer/landlord relationship 1. Equalities Social landlords perform all aspects of their housing services so that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> every tenant and other customer has their individual needs recognised, is treated fairly and with respect, and receives fair access to housing and housing services. 2. It includes landlords' responsibility for finding ways of understanding the rights and needs of different customers and delivery services that recognise and meet these. This outcome covers all aspects of landlords' communication with tenants and other customers. This could include making use of new technologies such as web-based tenancy management systems and smart-phone applications. It is not just about how clearly and effectively a landlord gives information to those who want it. It also covers making it easy for tenants and other customers to make complaints and provide feedback on services, using that information to improve services and performance, and letting people know what they have done in response to complaints and feedback. It does not require landlords to provide legally protected, personal or commercial information. This outcome describes what landlords should achieve by meeting their statutory duties on tenant participation. It covers how social landlords gather and take account of the views and priorities of their tenants; other customers, and bodies representing them such as registered tenant organisations; how they shape their services to reflect these views; and how they help tenants, other customers and bodies representing them such as registered tenant organisations to become more capable of involvement – this could include supporting them to scrutinise landlord services.

- 1.2 This Membership of the Management Committee Policy is designed to ensure that:-
- As far as is practicable, the Management Committee is broadly representative of the range of diverse persons and groups which make up the communities we serve.
 - The Management Committee is composed of members with a diversity of skills, knowledge and experience which will enable it to discharge its responsibilities efficiently and effectively and deliver good tenant outcomes.
 - The Management Committee is composed of a good mix of established and new members and orderly succession planning can be ensured.
 - The Management Committee is well informed and receives appropriate levels of training and support.
 - The Association complies fully with the requirements of the regulatory framework for social housing published by the Scottish Housing Regulator.

2. PROMOTION OF MEMBERSHIP OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 2.1 The Association will actively promote membership of the Management Committee.
- 2.2 Information on the Association's Membership of the Management Committee Policy will be provided to residents, tenants, service users, community and representative groups, the local authority, advice groups and interested individuals.
- 2.3 Information is made available in written form and also through the Association's web and social media pages. Written information includes a "Membership of the Management Committee Information Pack" and we will also advertise the availability of these packs through articles in our Newsletters and occasional adverts and articles in the local press. The Information Packs will be made available in our offices and on request. They will also be provided to all new members of the Association on approval of their application for membership.

3. CRITERIA FOR MEMBERSHIP OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 3.1 The Association seeks to achieve the broadest and most representative membership of the Management Committee possible regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.
- 3.2 Individuals must be a member of the Association and aged 18 or over in order to be elected to or to fill a casual vacancy on the Management Committee.
- 3.3 Co-opted members do not necessarily have to be members of the Association but they cannot make up more than one-third of the total number of the Committee.
- 3.4 An employee of the Association or a close relative of an employee may not be a Committee Member.

4. APPLYING FOR MEMBERSHIP OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 4.1 Members can be elected to the Management Committee in accordance with the Rules at the Annual General Meeting.
- 4.2 Applicants who wish to be appointed to fill a casual vacancy or be co-opted to the Management Committee will complete the Membership of the Management Committee Application Form and return it to the Association.
- 4.3 The Management Committee will consider applications at the meeting following receipt of the application or as soon as possible thereafter. In assessing applications, the Management Committee will consider the criteria for membership, the duties set out in the Management Committee Member Job Description and the requirements of the Management Committee Member Profile, both of which are included in Appendix 1. The Management Committee will also take account of any imbalances that may exist with regard to gender, age and representation from ethnic or minority groups.
- 4.4 Prospective members of the Management Committee will be interviewed by the Chairperson and the Chief Executive. A report on the outcome of the interviews, including recommendations, will be made to the next meeting of the Management Committee for consideration.

New Management Committee members will be invited to the next scheduled Management Committee meeting at which they will be required to sign the Code of Conduct prior to commencing their duties.
- 4.6 Co-opted members will have their membership of the Management Committee reviewed annually in accordance with the Rules.

5. REVIEW OF INDIVIDUAL MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND THE COMPOSITION OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

5.1 Each Management Committee member will complete an annual Appraisal Form to review their performance against the Management Committee Member Job Description and the Management Committee Member Profile. The Appraisal Forms will be reviewed by our Internal Auditors.

5.2 Using the Forms completed by the Management Committee members, the Internal Auditors will report to the Management Committee annually on:-

- the skills, knowledge and diversity that the Management Committee may need for its decision-making;
- their assessment of what is contributed by existing members;
- their identification of the gaps there are that need to be filled.

5.3 Based on this assessment process, the Association can then openly publicise the skills it needs to attract new members of the Management Committee.

5.4 The Management Committee may also review their membership as a consequence of vacancies arising outwith the annual review cycle or when issues arise that result in the identification of specific skills or areas of expertise required.
